

Money Gaddlers

Here is a list of things likely to eat away at your cash flow. There is no intent to classify them as good or bad, simply to remind people how quickly miscellaneous expenses can add up to large bills. Try multiplying what you spend in each category by 12 to find out the total for a year. Surprised?

Aerobics	Classes	Music lessons
Alimony	Club dues	Parking tickets
Antiques	Coffee/espresso out	Photo supplies
Arts & Crafts	Computer/supplies	Plants
Auto Club	Cosmetics	Races
Avon	Cruising	Stamps/postage
Baby pictures	Dating	Stationery
Baby-sitting	Diaper service	Stereo equipment
Bank charges	Dietary foods	Summer camp
Batteries	Dinners out	Tupperware
Beverages	Domestic help	Video games
Big Mac attack	Fishing	Video rentals
Bike/bike accessories	Funruns
Bingo	Gambling/lottery
Birthdays	Garden supplies
Boat/boat supplies	Gifts
Books	Greeting cards
Booze	Gym/weight room
Bottled water	Guns
Bounced checks	Highway/bridge tolls
Cable TV	Hobbies
Car rental	Jazzercise
Car washes	Licenses
Card games	Magazines
Cassette tapes/CD's	Mail orders
Catalogue sales	OTC medications
Cigarettes/tobacco	Motor bike expenses	